

Score Choice™

The New SAT® Score-Reporting
Feature

About Score Choice

We know that many of you feel anxious about taking tests. So we've tried to make the SAT experience a little less stressful by giving you what you've asked for — a new way to report your scores to colleges.

What is Score Choice™?

Score Choice gives you the option to choose which scores (by test date for the SAT and by individual test for SAT Subject Tests™) you send to colleges — at no additional cost. You can choose scores from one, several or all SAT test dates.

The College Board is partnering with colleges and universities to help ensure that you know which scores need to go to which institutions. Score Choice is optional, and if you don't decide to use it, all of your scores will be sent automatically.

About Score Choice

WHO

- Score Choice will first be available to students taking the March 2009 test, as well as any student who has taken the SAT prior to the launch.

WHAT

- You can select scores only by test date for the SAT and by individual test for the SAT Subject Tests.
 - You will not be able to select scores by section of the SAT.
- Any or all of your scores can be sent to a college on a single report.
 - It will not cost more to send multiple or all of your test scores.
- Score Choice applies only to the score reports that you send to colleges.
 - All scores will continue to go to you and your high school.

Remember to take advantage of the four free “score sends” during registration. As part of your registration fee, these can be used to send scores to colleges, universities or scholarship programs. They will not be available for use after the test.

How It Works

How It Works

Score Choice is available:

- During test registration, when your four free score sends are available
- After receiving your scores, when you log in to your College Board account

To use Score Choice, you must first search for the colleges, universities or scholarship programs that you would like to receive your scores.

The screenshot shows a search interface with the following elements:

- Radio buttons for "Search for Schools and Scholarships" (selected) and "Show My Previous Selections".
- Search fields: "Find School or Scholarship:" (containing "Blue University"), "City:" (containing "Not required..."), "Country:" (containing "United States"), "State:" (empty dropdown), and "Code" (containing "Not required...").
- Buttons: "Clear Search" or "Search".
- Results section: "(4) Recipients Matching Your Search:" with a list of "Blue University", "Orange University", and "Purple University".
- "Your Selected Recipients:" list containing "Blue University" and "Green University".
- Buttons: "Add >" and "< Remove".
- Bottom buttons: "Cancel" and "Continue".

* The screenshots on this and the following slides are up to date as of Nov. 21, 2008. Minor changes to the displayed information are likely before the launch of Score Choice.

How It Works

Next, you must decide whether to send all of your scores or use Score Choice.

The screenshot shows the 'Send Score Reports (4 for FREE)' interface. At the top, there are buttons for 'Build Your Score Recipient List' and 'Review Order'. A message states: 'We'll send all of your test scores to each recipient on your list unless you've chosen specific test scores to send. It's okay to send all of your test scores; most colleges consider your best scores from among the ones you send.' Below this, it says 'Your Selected School and Scholarship Program Recipients' with 'Number of FREE Recipients: 2 of 4 (I have a Fee Waiver)' and an 'Add More Recipients' button. A yellow box titled 'Which Test Scores to Send' contains instructions: 'We'll send all of your test scores to each recipient on your list unless you've chosen specific test scores to send. To choose which test scores to send, select Choose Scores. Some schools and scholarship programs will recommend that you send certain test scores and we'll display their score use practice for you to read when making your selections. Read it carefully. It's important.' Below this is a table with columns: 'YOUR SCORE RECIPIENTS', '(Remove All)', 'SCORES TO SEND', and 'PRICE'. The table lists four recipients: Blue University, Orange University, Purple University, and Green University. Each row has a '(X Remove)' link, 'All Scores' in the 'SCORES TO SEND' column, a 'Choose Scores' button, and 'FREE' in the 'PRICE' column. At the bottom, there are 'Cancel' and 'Continue to Review Your Order' buttons.

YOUR SCORE RECIPIENTS	(Remove All)	SCORES TO SEND	PRICE
Blue University	(X Remove)	All Scores	FREE
Orange University	(X Remove)	All Scores	FREE
Purple University	(X Remove)	All Scores	FREE
Green University	(X Remove)	All Scores	FREE

If you choose to use Score Choice, click "Choose Scores." You must click "Choose Scores" for each college you've selected to receive your scores. If you do not select "Choose Scores," all your scores will be sent.

Click "Continue" to move forward and send scores.

Questions & Answers

Q&A

Q: When will I be able to use Score Choice?

A: Score Choice will be available to all students taking the March 2009 test, as well as any student who has taken the SAT prior to the launch. For example:

- Scenario 1: You register for the March 2009 test date before Score Choice has launched. Once Score Choice becomes available, you can go online or call Customer Service to make changes before taking the test or within nine days of taking the test.
- Scenario 2: You have already taken one or more SAT tests or SAT Subject Tests before Score Choice has launched. Once Score Choice becomes available, you can sign into your account and select scores from previous tests that you wish to send.

Q: How will I remember to send my scores?

A: The College Board will be sending e-mails to you and your counselors to remind you to send your scores.

Q&A

Q: When using my four free score reports included in my registration fee, why must I send the score from the test I'm about to take?

A: Free registration score sends enable you to send scores from the test you are taking as quickly as possible. You have nine days after taking the test to add colleges or cancel the score send. We process the scores for the test as quickly as possible after every test date and send them to you and your chosen colleges at the same time. Allowing you to review scores beforehand would cause an unnecessary delay in delivering scores to both you and the colleges. Some colleges see receiving your scores early as a sign of interest.

Q: If I send different SAT scores to different schools within one university system, will the schools see all of the scores that I've sent within the system?

A: Some university systems share admissions test scores across campuses. In most cases, if a university system shares scores across campuses, this will be mentioned in the school's application or Web site.

Q&A

Q: Can my selected colleges receive scores from my high school?

A: The College Board strongly recommends that high schools not place SAT scores on transcripts that are sent to colleges, and that they encourage you to send official score reports. If a high school still decides to send scores on a transcript, the SAT Program recommends that a school receive official consent from you and your parent.

Q: Should I send my scores in the spring?

A: If you know which schools you'd like to send your scores to and are comfortable sending your scores in the spring of your junior year, you should do so. Some colleges see this as a sign of interest. They may also use scores to qualify you for special campus visit programs, information sessions in your hometown or for scholarships.
