St. Cecilia invites community to its Jan. 11 Interim Showcase

by Becky Phillips on Jan. 6, 2012

Every January, St. Cecilia Academy students participate in the Interim Program. This is a time for students to explore non-traditional learning through travel, internships, or the acquiring of various skills to which they may not otherwise be exposed.

Cake decorating, calligraphy, cooking, knitting, and Introduction to Law are just a few of the classes offered on-campus. Upperclassmen are off-campus interning or traveling. Students are interning in Washington, D.C., as well as around Nashville and in other nearby states such as Kentucky, where one student is working at WLKY TV for the week. Others are in New York City and France with faculty members seeing the sites and experiencing new cultures.

You can find a number of students interning for local businesses, firms, hospitals, and schools to further investigate their career interests. Some of the sponsors include Vanderbilt Hospital, the Judicial District of Tennessee, and local news stations. On Monday, freshmen and sophomores will be spending the day doing service work throughout the Nashville community.

In appreciation for the community's support of the Interim program, SCA invites all to its Interim Showcase on Jan. 11 from 12 -12:45 p.m. in the SCA theatre. During this time students will display their work and share their Interim experiences. Refreshments will be provided following the presentation.

St. Cecilia Academy is Nashville's oldest private high school founded in 1860 by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation. The Academy has been named to the Top 50 best Catholic high schools in the U.S. list five times since 2004. Ninety-one percent of the Class of 2011 were offered college scholarships totaling $7.2 million. SCA is also home to the 2011 TSSAA State Runner-up in volleyball and the 2011 TSSAA State 3rd place cross country team.
