St. Cecilia Academy hosts Songwriters' Night featuring Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Will Hoge and Brandy Clark

St. Cecilia Academy announces a great lineup for its annual Songwriters' Night featuring Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Will Hoge, and Brandy Clark on Feb. 4 at 6 p.m.

In its ninth year, the fundraiser's theme is "Play it Again, SCA." Starting with a silent auction and hors d'oeuvres the evening continues with a live auction and is capped by entertainment from several of Nashville's best-known artists.

"It is a blessing to be able to tap into the wonderful talent Nashville is known for. Two of our parents, Carmella Ramsey and Larry Fitzgerald, helped us secure this year's entertainment," said event co-chair Rhonda Mech.

"This evening is all about fun and the joy of strengthening our children's education," said event co-chair Robin Fuller. "We are raising the money to purchase an activities van. It is a labor of love; more than 45 parents and 12 committees have worked tirelessly on this event for months."

The live auction, which occurs right before the night's performances, includes a puppy, a fabulous week's stay on Jekyll Island and a deluxe vacation home in Colorado, jewelry and more. The silent auction includes items valued up to $3,000, including a 2012 family pass to Cheekwood Botanical Gardens and Museum, a studio package from Uchida Photography, SCA camp gift certificates, beautiful original artwork, a Pie in the Sky pizza party, Whitts BBQ dinner for 20, a gift certificate for Glitz Bridal, and much more. Tickets for Songwriters' Night are available through St. Cecilia Academy by calling 298-4525.

St. Cecilia Academy is Nashville's oldest private high school founded in 1860 by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation. The Academy has been named to the Top 50 best Catholic high schools in the U.S. list five times since 2004. Ninety-one percent of the Class of 2011 were offered college scholarships totaling $7.2 million. SCA is also home to the 2011 TSSAA State Runner-up in volleyball and the 2011 TSSAA State 3rd place cross country team.
